2016 Small Schools' Combined Athletics Carnival And Gala Day

Excursion Description: Listed below are the details of our Combined Small Schools' Athletics Carnival. Whilst it is a combined carnival where the students will complete the events with students from the other schools – it is not a school vs. school carnival. The emphasis is on participation, high personal achievement and socialisation. The students will sit in their school groups as in previous years. During the day they will rotate in combined groups through four events under the supervision of staff from the small schools involved.

Date: Wednesday August 3 2016.

Time: Departing school at 9.00am sharp. Students will return to school by bus, in time for dismissal at 3.00pm

Transport: Students will be transported by bus to and from Warragamba Sports Oval.

Cost: $10.00 (includes the cost of the bus and facilities on the day, including St John's Ambulance attendance).

Attire & What to Bring: Sports uniform, hat, drink bottle, jacket, recess and lunch. There will be NO canteen facilities available on the day.

Staff member/s with CPR training: All teachers. First Aid will be provided by St John's Ambulance.

Additional Information: Students who are turning 8 years or older this year are able to compete in the Athletics Carnival. The events will be 100m, 200m, 800m, Long Jump, Shot Put, Discus and Relays.

Students in K – 2 under the age of 8 years will be involved in Gala Athletic Activities.

Assistance is required to help run some of the events. If you are able to assist please indicate this on the permission slip below, along with the times you are available.

If your child has a medical condition that will preclude or limit involvement, please indicate this in the attached section, which is to be returned to school by Friday 29 July 2016.
